CHICO CHUGG

One small dog, one narrow boat and a whole lot of fun!

A multi-award winning live action pre-school series, "Chico Chugg" is based on the bestselling children's books by Janet Roberts. The series follows a lovable Jack Russell dog who lives with his family on a river boat called Wah Wah Chugg. Come and join Chico and his doggie friends as they find adventures and get up to comedic mischief on and around the canals and waterways!

With original songs written and performed by Grammy Award-winning artists, children can't help but join in with the catchy tunes and heartwarming storylines. Featuring a subtle educational message and format, this series covers a large variety of topics along with seasonal and holiday episodes. The property is accompanied by a book series as well as an interactive website filled with activities for children ages 3-7.

Worldwide rights available for this paw-sitively fun live-action series produced by Chugg Productions.
